HITTING IT BIG

It seems to be commonly accepted nowadays that everyone wants to win the lottery, hit the slots big at the casino, or be a millionaire. This attitude is akin to what the first hearers of the parable of the successful farmer would have thought: why, of course he'd want to find a way to preserve his good fortune for the future, to secure for himself a life of leisure, eating, drinking, and merriment. It's exactly the kind of life that the right ticket, hand of cards, or quiz show answer might bring us today. Being surrounded by this "common wisdom" makes the words of Qoheleth, the psalmist, Paul, and Jesus all that much harder to hear today. Perhaps good fortune will be ours, perhaps it will not be. But if we make that fortune or the quest for it the heart, the very center, of our lives, then we will live to regret it. We will not achieve the future security we pursue, and we will lose the present moment in the chase.

“Thank You”

The road to growing up to become mature, humble people begins with a simple lesson. “Say, ‘thank you’.” The Mass is our great prayer of thanksgiving and it keeps all our relationships Christ-centered and healthy. Christ shares Himself with us and He invites us to do the same.

We Thank You Lord...
For the shame that drove us to our knees,
For the darkness where we found the light,
For the tears that washed our spirits clean,
For the fear that drove us to your arms,
For the void that only you can fill,
For endless nights that helped us know the dawn,
For Jesus, for the Spirit, for you, Abba - Father,
For Mary and Teresa, for Francis and Jude,
For the Word and the words,
For no-longer bread and wine,
For the cross and the blaze of Easter Morn,
For our lives. We give you thanks.

God Bless,
Fr. Mike

Giggles:

Father Murphy was in the middle of a homily on “Love of Neighbor” when he solicited the help of Sean in the front pew.

Father: “Sean, suppose you had two hundred thousand dollars - would you give half to your neighbor?”

Sean: “I would, Father.”

Father: “Sean, suppose you had two cows - would you give one to your neighbor?”

Sean: “I would not, Father.”

Father: “Why, Sean?”

Sean: “I have two cows, Father.”

Father Murphy met Mike, one of his parishioners on Monday morning.

Mike: “Father, who won the Cadillac in the Parish Raffle?”

Father: “The Bishop did. Was he lucky, or what?”

Mike: “Father, who won the Honda?”

Father: “I did! Was I lucky, or what? How many tickets did you purchase, Mike?”

Mike: “None, Father. Was I lucky, or what?”

Oasis Day - August 7, 2007 9:15am - 2:30pm

Every first Tuesday of the month, Mercy Center Auburn offers an opportunity for persons to gather and contemplate more deeply their Christian experience. These days begin with morning prayer and Scripture reflection, and follow with time alone to journal, celebrate Eucharist or attend another way of being with God. Before the close of the day, participants are invited to engage in meaningful reflection and faith sharing. This time of sacred sharing honors the questions and mysteries which puzzle, disturb, and amaze us. Together we respond to God’s call toward holiness as we seek the deepest meaning and potential of our lives. Pre-registration by phone or e-mail appreciated but not required. Please bring your own lunch. (530)887-2019.

ACCOLADES to all the volunteers who made the patriotic sing-along such a success. The residents at the local convalescent and retirement homes were delighted to share in singing, and those that weren't able to sing sure felt the faith-filled experience in listening to good old patriotic songs such as God Bless America, Battle Hymn of the Republic and many more. Here is a heart-touching scene that happened at one particular home. There is a medley of service songs that is sung towards the end of our program to acknowledge all the veterans. An elderly gentleman stood up in full salute when we sang The Marine's Hymn - now there is a heart full of patriotic pride! I speak for each and every volunteer when I say that the rewards are endless and the smiles are priceless. Thank you volunteers!!

RELAY FOR LIFE

One Day. One Night. One Community. By participating in the American Cancer Society Relay For Life on August 18th and 19th at the Gold Country Fairgrounds. You will be honoring cancer survivors, pay tribute to the lives lost to this disease and raise money to help fight it, right here in your community.

This is much more than a walk around a track. Relay is a time to celebrate those who have battled cancer, remember those lost and get inspired to fight back. Those who have shared the same experience find common ground, hope and healing at Relay. By participating, you have the power to continue the American Cancer Society's progress toward a future where cancer doesn't take the lives of our friends and family.

The Knights of Columbus Council 6149 will take turns (1 hour segments) walking around the Gold Country Fairgrounds for 24 hours. While people are walking, there will be entertainment, speakers, time to relax and reflect, support, and companionship.

During the Luminaria ceremony held on Saturday evening at 8:30pm, each light honors the community's cancer survivors and commemorates those lost to the disease. Walkers will circle the track rimmed with glowing luminaries while the names of survivors and those lost to the disease are read aloud. Luminarias can be purchased for $10.

The Knights of Columbus will have an area during the event which will have food, beverages, and shade from sun. Our team theme is "SURVIVOR".

We are asking for your help. We have lost many brothers and family members to this disease. We want a big participation in this event. We are signing up walkers and sponsors. If you would like to walk, sponsor, donate or just hang out for moral support, please contact Faber Eaves at 530-305-3242 or 530-878-6747.
