EXPECT THE UNEXPECTED

We all know what to expect of Easter: lots of lilies around the altar, our “Alleluia” joyfully sung over and over, perhaps a tasty ham dinner later in the day, topped off by some chocolates from the Easter basket. But all of this began, as we hear in today’s Gospel, with the “unexpected” when Mary Magdalene found the tomb empty. Indeed, Peter’s speech from Acts in the first reading could insert the phrase “you might have expected” at a number of points . . . that Jesus would baptize John, not the other way around . . . that his healing and exorcising ministry would win him acclaim, not death . . . that his resurrection would place him in another dimension, not back at table with his followers. On a day like Easter, a day filled with traditions, customs, and expectations, we are called more than ever to keep looking for God’s will in unexpected places, people, and events. In this way we can continue to give witness, like Mary Magdalene and Peter, that Christ is truly risen from dead, and continues to live among us.

WELCOME SUNDAY

Today, hosting our Welcome Sunday is various ministries within our parish. Please stop by after Mass and meet and mingle with fellow parishioners.

WELCOME HOME
 RETURNING TO YOUR CATHOLIC ROOTS

Regardless of what's happened in your life or how long you have been away, you can always come home to the Catholic Church, and our Lord wants you to come home.

Think for a minute about Christ's parable of the Prodigal Son. The young man had walked away from his father, certain that he was doing the right thing by leaving. But eventually he had a change of heart and tentatively made his way home, full of doubts about whether his father would accept him back. The story has a happy ending. Not only did the father welcome his son home again, but he threw him a party in celebration of his son's return! You can be sure that the angels and the saints in heaven - and your own Heavenly Father - will rejoice that day you come home to the Catholic Church. If you have any questions or would like to speak with Fr. Mike or Sr. Anita, please call the parish office at 889-2254 or e-mail sranita@stteresaauburn.com

HE LIVES

*When dawn stands still with wonder
When birds jubilate in the trees
When buds hurry into blossoms
And grass starts wearing green
I always know that Easter wants to come again . . .*

*So, let it come
It's one dawn past rising time
And Resurrection is the wildest news
That's ever touched this crazy, mixed up world.
It says, yes!
When everything else says, no!
It says, up!
When everything else says, down!
It says, live!
When everything else says, die . . .*

*So here's to rolling stones away
To give our Lord the chance He needs
To rise and touch
A troubled, lonely world.
Some call it Resurrection.
It's wild with wonder,
It's beautiful and real Intent on throwing life around
It touches and it heals!*

~Macrina Wiederkehr, O.S.B.

Creative God and Lord of Life,
You who call forth from the darkness of death
all those who love You,
we rejoice, on this Easter Sunday,
in the resurrection from the dead
of our Lord, Jesus Christ.
Visit our home and this table
with Your bright blessing of peace and life.
We pause in the midst of this prayer
to remember all the holy dead of our family who live now in You and who await the final and glorious resurrection of the dead.

Pause for silent reflection

May they and we, because of our faith in You, our God, taste in the victory of life over death.
May the Risen Christ, our Lord and Savior,
be our guest as we celebrate His resurrection
with this Easter Sunday dinner.
Bless those whose work to prepare this meal
has truly been a work of prayer,
and bless all of us who shall share it with Easter love and joy.

May You, then, bless this table and this food, and each of us in Your Holy Name:
Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
Amen
